XTEK Receives A$3.2m Order for Urgent Supply of Specialist Ballistic Armour Products

Thursday 24 March 2022: XTEK Limited (ASX: XTE, 'XTEK', 'Group') is pleased to announce that the Group's Ballistics Division, has received a Purchase Order for the urgent supply of specialist ballistic armour products from an undisclosed international customer to the value of A$3.2m.

Key highlights:

- Purchase Order is valued at A$3.2m
- Urgent delivery now underway

Scott Basham, XTEK Group CEO, said, "HighCom is XTEK's Group global armour brand, and it is the foundation of the Group's Ballistics Division. Through our advanced manufacturing capabilities in Columbus, Ohio, and with our patented XTclave capability located in Adelaide, South Australia, we manufacture world-leading, ultra-lightweight and high-performance body armour plates and ballistic helmets.

We supply these world-class, advanced personal protection ballistic products and solutions to militaries, law enforcement agencies, and first responder customers all around the world.

This urgent order to supply an international customer with specialist ballistic products valued at A$3.2m, is yet another example of the Group's capacity to rapidly respond to meet a crucial operational demand.

XTEK's Ballistics Division is working at pace to manufacture our highly sought-after specialist ballistic products, and we are in constant discussions with many other international customers as they develop their ballistic armour requirements".

This announcement has been authorised by the XTEK Limited Board of Directors
