FY24 Results – Key Highlights

Group Overview

Highcom Group is comprised of two distinct businesses – HighCom Armor & HighCom Technology

HighCom Armor

Designs, manufactures, and supplies global military, law enforcement, and first responder customers with world-class, advanced personal protection ballistic products and solutions for Body Armour, Ballistic Helmets, Shields, and Composite Armour Panels & Platform Structures.

HighCom Technology

Supplies and supports uncrewed systems, control systems, and sensors for use by Defence, Security and Law Enforcement agencies in Australia, and around the world, including: Project management, engineering, integration, repair and maintenance services, product support and related training

FY24 Revenue by Division

HighCom Armor – Overview

- Locations:
 - Global Manufacturing, R&D, US Sales & Distribution Centre – Columbus, OH, USA
 - APAC Sales – Canberra, ACT, Australia
- Designs, manufactures, and supplies global military, law enforcement, and first responder customers with world-class, advanced personal protection ballistic products and solutions for Body Armour, Ballistic Helmets, Shields, and Composite Armour Panels & Platform Structures.
- Key Customers: Global militaries, US law enforcement, national security and first responders.

HighCom Armor – Update

- During the reporting period, HighCom Armor successfully implemented its “go to market” business model progressively building a partner network, focused on the domestic US and international law enforcement and military customers.
- The Board’s decision to relocate the business’ patented XTclave™ production system to Columbus, Ohio, has seen the armour manufacturing business now centrally located, generating efficiencies.
- HighCom are anticipating delivery of the new pressure vessel, which will have a greater capacity than the existing vessel, at the start of Q1 CY2025 with re-commissioning planned to be completed in Q2 CY2025.
- A new government business development team are targeting various areas of the US military and US federal law enforcement.
- The strategic initiatives increase the HighCom brand recognition across the global ballistic markets and sets the foundations for strong sales and revenue growth in the coming years from a wider opportunity pool.

HighCom Armor – Inventory Management

- While progress has been made in reducing inventory levels they remain above target.
- Current inventory has a reduction in finished goods.
- Raw material inventory will be run down for current sales orders.
- Initiatives flagged in February 24 working, however more improvement is required.

HighCom Technology – Overview

- Co-located with Corporate Headquarters in Canberra, ACT, Australia.
- Supplies and supports uncrewed systems, control systems, and sensors for use by Defence, Security and Law Enforcement agencies in Australia, and around the world. Key outputs include: Project management, engineering, integration, repair and maintenance services, product support and related training
- Systems - UAV and uncrewed solutions, control systems, and sensors
- Support - Project management, engineering, integration, repair and maintenance, product support and training

HighCom Technology – Update

- HighCom Technology finalised the delivery of AeroVironment Small Unmanned Aerial Systems (SUAS) for the ADF.
- The initial 4-year term of the contract for support services is valued at $15.9m, with potential for up to $23m of spare parts over the initial term. The further 6 years (2+2+2) of extension period support services, if taken, will be valued up to ~$26m, with a potential ~$45m of spare parts also possible.
- Recently expanded its business development team to focus on increasing sales with existing customers, as well as investigating and assessing new business opportunities and adjacencies.
- Recently HighCom and AeroVironment have renewed an Exclusive Reseller Agreement for SUAS, and established new agreements for Tomahawk Kinesis Ecosystem and universal controller, helicopter UAS, P550 eVTOL UAS, and LMS.
- The broadening and extension to our partnership places the Company at the center of the critical and growing role SUAS and other technology plays in modern military operations within the Australian Defence environment.

AV's Offering We Represent in APAC

- AeroVironment (AV) is a US company and world leader in unmanned aerial vehicles.
- AV's Tomahawk Kenisis Ecosystem, is an AI-enhanced, open architecture, common universal control system designed for the warfighter first. Built for ease of use, the ecosystem seamlessly connects the human-machine team across the tactical network to enable the execution of critical missions spanning ISR to lethal effects.
- The all-electric VAPOR helicopter unmanned aircraft system is extremely versatile and easily configured to support a variety of mission requirements. VAPOR delivers precision flight performance, exceptional endurance, and maximum payload flexibility.
- The P550 eVTOL uncrewed aircraft system is purpose built for long-range reconnaissance missions and features advanced AI and autonomy capabilities with maximum payload versatility.
- Switchblade 300 and 600 represent the next generation of extended-range loitering munition systems (LMS), delivering high-precision optics, extended loitering endurance, and warheads for engaging targets at greater distances.

Strategy & FY25 Outlook

Maintain Strategy

REINFORCE SUCCESS

Invest in the areas of our business that have been successful and have potential for continued enhancement and growth.

SEEK ADJACENCIES

Find new business opportunities that extend our reach and can draw on our experiences and expertise.

CREATE OUR FUTURE

Invest in organic and inorganic expansion opportunities to create new products and service offerings for sustained future growth and profitability.

FY25 Outlook

- Positive macro due to the ongoing geopolitical tension generated by the war in Europe, ongoing tensions in the Middle East and rising tensions across the Asia Pacific region.
- The Group remains committed to developing longer-term opportunities in both HighCom Technology and HighCom Armor while also seeking to maximise short term revenue streams.
- H1 FY25 focus remains on investment in sales team, product development and commissioning of XTclave™.

Industry Trends & Outlook

A heightened global threat environment has and will continue to drive defence spending for both military and law enforcement

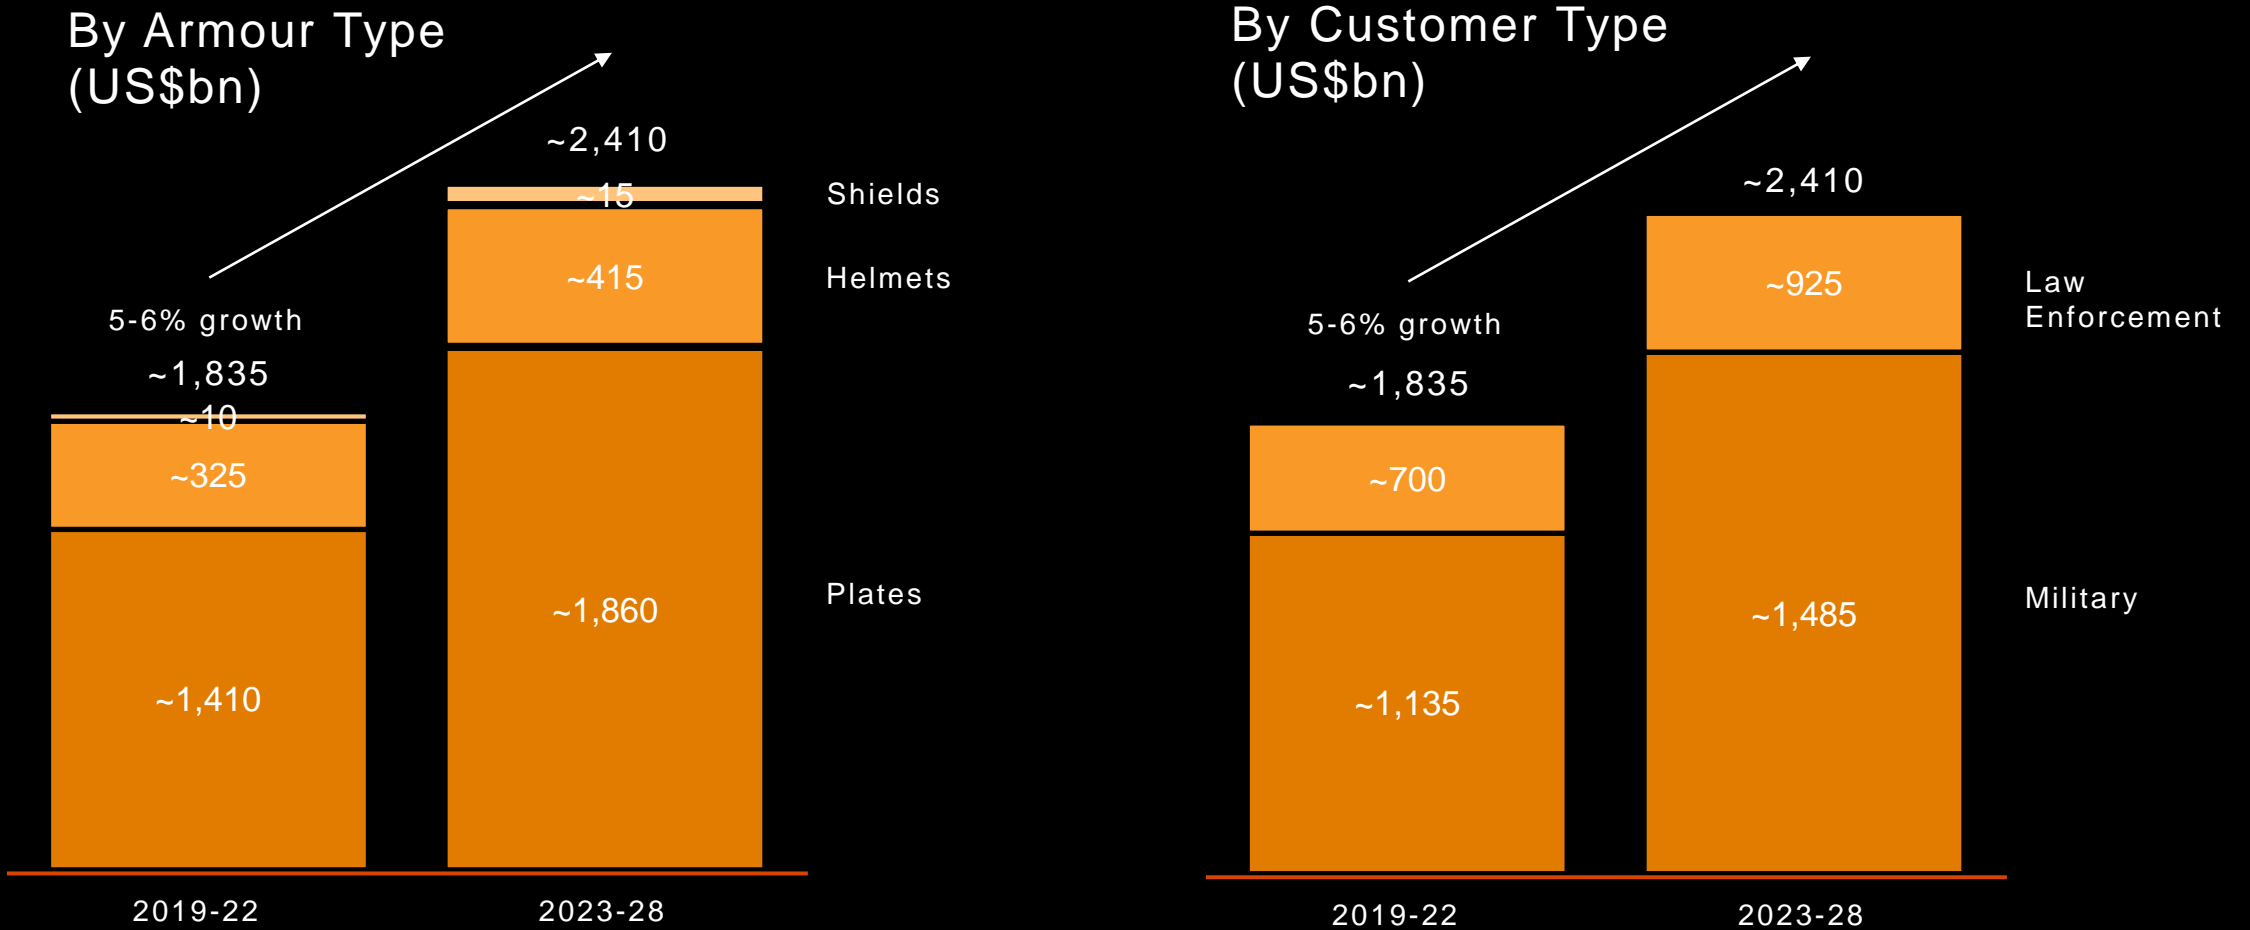

- There is an increasing focus on autonomous solutions that provide asymmetric advantages, including uncrewed systems and loitering munitions such as AeroVironment LMS
- Current U.S. DOD spending is growing faster in response to near-peer threats
- Growth drivers include increasing sales to conflict areas, U.S. DoD record programs and growing international sales

Industry Trends & Outlook

Plates and military account for ~75% and ~60% of the addressable personal armour market size by armour and customer type, respectively

Conclusion

- Disappointing full year result however turn around in H2 positive and more indicative of future.
- Board's strategic initiatives to improve cost base and operational focus is on track however ongoing focus remains on inventory levels, cost analysis, product development, sales and XTclave™ commissioning.
- Operational objectives over the next 6 months maintaining our “run rate” monthly sales in armour plus conversion of current sales pipeline. For technology ongoing sustainment of SUAS contract with ADF and conversion of sale pipeline.
- Board turning mind back to strategic focus given short term cash position in improved position.
